"Take a peep at this insulation"

BEAR this in mind. A battery that does not have to be replaced saves you far more than the cost of this repair.

You'll realize how much this means to you as dollars and cents when we tell you that a severe insulation breakdown often places a battery beyond economical repair, and that even a slight one is bound to rob the phone of much of their useful life.

Now, the insulation you've been looking at a Willard Threaded Rubber—and here's our policy on any Willard Threaded Rubber Battery we sell.

The insulation must stand up and continue to give satisfactory, unimpaired service for the entire life of the plate, or we will reimburse your battery without charge.

We service all makes and all Willards for all cars.

Recharging a Willard is a very simple matter. If your house is wired for electric light you can do that right at home, or if you prefer, any of our conveniently located service stations will take care of it.

Willards are sure to stand. Just snap their standard connections onto your present battery wiring, and your car is ready to operate.

Make Sure of

Healthful Cleanliness

At housecleaning time
use Old Dutch

Keeping well begins with keeping clean; your surroundings as well as yourself. That's the chief reason for housecleaning; the other reasons are the comfort and pride you take in a spick and span home.

There is nothing else like Old Dutch for healthful cleanliness. It erases dirt; the visible and invisible; laboratory tests prove that a surface cleaned with Old Dutch is hygienically clean. It doesn't scratch. A scratched surface, you know, is harder to keep clean and besides scratches are catchalls for impurities.

Old Dutch looks like a fine powder; under a microscope you see fine, flat, flaky particles; they make a perfect contact with the surface to be cleaned, instead of scratching their way across it. An extraordinary natural detergent, unlike anything else, thorough, efficient, economical.

For healthful cleanliness throughout the house use Old Dutch. Goes farther, cleans quicker, lasts longer.
